

Grant Application Process

Two funding rounds are held each year: the major funding round is aligned to the Children's Cancer Foundation's financial year planning; the minor funding round allows the Foundation to respond to new projects or developments during the year. Funding applications in the minor round are by invitation only.

